n. On the 18th of July, the President sent the DCI a letter stating that in FY 76 there will be a balanced budget which will require a [ ]. The DCI is to reduce the budgets of FY 75 and FY 76.

o. The DCI philosophized at the morning meeting concerning the differing intelligence needs for policy support for the Middle East war of last October and Cyprus. The telephone was the primary support for the Cyprus crisis while shuttle diplomacy, papers and aerial reconnaissance were required in the October war.

p. Proctor noticed the DDI participation in the suggestions awards program based on the FY 74 report which was passed out to the various office heads. He emphasized this is a good time to encourage suggestions for saving money. A discussion followed.

q. The Director wants to quickly surface field and Headquarters support elements who played a part in the Cyprus crisis for whom unit citations or individual medals may be given.

r. Proctor wanted it impressed upon DDI people that classification of documents should be as low as possible and the criteria is whether sources and methods as well as policy directions are in jeopardy.
